The Palos Verdes Library District cannot make changes to an employee's workweek that are designed to evade the overtime requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act, nor shall the District make changes to an employee's workweek for retaliatory or non-business related reasons.

- 7.4 Change of Scheduled Work Hours. During holiday work weeks, vacation, illnesses, or emergencies, regularly scheduled hours may have to be changed by supervisors/managers. Occasionally, employees may be asked to work part of a day at one location and part of a day at another location. When this occurs, a per-mile allowance consistent with the current I.R.S. allowance will be granted for the expense of traveling between locations. Employees will be given travel time up to a maximum of half-hour between locations. Travel time contemplated beyond a half-hour requires consultation and approval by the employee's supervisor. Employees are expected to commence work immediately upon arrival at the assigned location.

When a staffing emergency occurs, an employee may be asked to work a split day, i.e., morning and evening hours at the same or different locations.

- 7.5 Meal Breaks. Subject to departmental staffing needs, employees classified as non-exempt will be granted the option to take either an hour or half-hour unpaid meal breaks on a consistently scheduled basis. Employees working more than six hours are required to take a minimum of half-hour for a meal break. Staffing conditions may require an employee to take a half-hour meal break rather than the employee's scheduled hour meal break and the employee may be required to arrive half-hour later or leave half-hour earlier than scheduled.

Management Employees are encouraged to take appropriate meal breaks.

- 7.6 Rest Breaks. Employees classified as non-exempt shall take a 15-minute break for each four (4) hour work period. The rest period shall be taken at a time chosen by the employee, unless otherwise designated by the employee's supervisors. The scheduled rest break may not be used for other purposes, i.e., combined with other rest breaks, to make up time for tardiness, to extend meal breaks, to arrive late, or to leave early.
- 7.7 Early Quit. Employees classified as non-exempt are prohibited from leaving their job assignment earlier than their scheduled time off without the approval of their supervisor or a higher-level employee in the chain of supervision.
- 7.8 Tardiness. If an employee is late arriving to work, the employee must report immediately to his/her supervisor/manager or to the next higher level of supervision in the chain of supervision if the supervisor/manager is not available. If the employee is going to be more than 15 minutes late, the employee must call the supervisor/manager, and give the reason for the tardiness and expected time of arrival at work.

Based on the recommendation of the supervisor/manager, time lost for tardiness for non-exempt employees will be made up either through rescheduling of the employee's hours in the same week, use of the employee's vacation time, or time lost without pay. All tardiness is to be noted on time sheets.

- 7.9 Lactation Break. A non-exempt employee who wishes to express breast milk for her infant child during her scheduled work hours will receive additional unpaid time beyond the 15-minute compensated rest period. (Labor Code § 1030; 29 USC §207 (r).) Those desiring to take a lactation break must notify a supervisor prior to taking such a break. Breaks may be reasonable delayed if they would seriously disrupt operations. (Labor Code § 1032). Once a lactation break has been approved, the break should not be interrupted except for emergency or exigent circumstances.

The Palos Verdes Library District will make reasonable efforts to accommodate employees by providing an appropriate location to express milk in private. The Palos Verdes Library District will attempt to find a location in close proximity to the employee's work area, and the location will be other than a toilet stall. Employees occupying such private areas shall either secure the door or otherwise make it clear to others through signage that the area is occupied and should not be disturbed. All other employees should avoid interrupting an employee during an authorized break under this section, except to announce an emergency or other urgent circumstance. Authorized lactation breaks for employees assigned to the field may be taken at the nearest appropriate private area.

PERSONNEL POLICY VIII

PAID LEAVES OF ABSENCE

8.1 Holidays.

8.1.1 Authorized Palos Verdes Library District Holidays.

All Palos Verdes Library District locations will be closed on New Year's Day, Easter, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve, and Christmas Day.

If New Year's Day, Independence Day, Christmas Eve or Christmas Day falls on Sunday, the Library will be closed Sunday and Monday. Salaried employees will receive holiday pay for only one day. Palos Verdes Library District libraries will close at 5:00 p.m. on New Year's Eve.

Easter is a non-compensated authorized Palos Verdes Library District holiday.

8.1.2 Regular Full-Time Employees. Regular full-time employees regularly scheduled to work on the day on which a holiday falls shall receive pay as if the day had been worked. If the holiday (policy 8.1.1) falls on a Saturday, employees not scheduled to work Saturday will receive 8 hours compensatory time, which must be used in accordance with policy 8.1.4.

8.1.3 Regular Part-Time Salaried Employees. Regular part-time salaried employees regularly scheduled to work on a day on which a holiday falls shall receive four (4) hours holiday pay as if the day had been worked. If his/her regular work schedule is less than four (4) hours, the employee will receive holiday pay for the hours the employee is regularly scheduled to work and credited with compensatory time for the difference between the regularly scheduled work hours and four (4). If his/her regular schedule is more than four (4) hours, he/she will be given the four (4) hours holiday pay and have the choice of working additional hours on other days during the same pay period or using vacation or personal holiday time to make up the missing shift hours. It is the employee's responsibility to inform his/her manager of which option they chooses to make up the shift hours.

If a regular part-time salaried employee is not regularly scheduled to work on a day on which a holiday falls, they shall receive compensatory holiday time of four (4) hours per policy 8.1.3 and schedule compensatory time off per policy 8.1.4.

8.1.4 Compensatory Time. Subject to Personnel Policy 8.1.2 & 8.1.3 a non-exempt employee may opt to accrue compensatory time in lieu of cash payment for overtime worked if his/her supervisor agrees prior to overtime work being performed. Compensatory time off accrues at the rate of 1.5 hours for each hour, or fraction thereof, worked after 40 hours of actual work with the employee's designated work week. Compensatory time off cannot be accumulated in excess of 40 hours at any given time. Time in paid leave status does not count toward compensatory time off.

Accrued compensatory time must be taken in the three (3) months following the accrual and should be scheduled by the employee and his/her manager, so long as the scheduling of the time off does not interfere with maintaining service to the community. Exception: Employees credited with compensatory time as a result of holidays in the last three (3) months of any calendar year may be permitted to take such time in the first three (3) months of the next calendar year. The Palos Verdes Library District reserves the right to cash out an employee's accrued compensatory time off at any time. During employment, compensatory time off is cashed out at the employee's current regular rate of pay. Employees separating from the Palos Verdes Library District shall be compensated for all accrued, unused compensatory hours at their current regular rate of pay, or their average regular rate for the prior three years, whichever is higher.

8.2 Personal Holidays.

Personal holidays may be carried over from year to year, but accrual of personal holiday time shall cease when the employee accrues the "maximum accrual" levels until such time that the employee's accrued personal holiday balance falls below the maximum amount. The maximum accrual levels are set forth below.

Employee Long Service Recognition. Effective January 1, 2017, employees who have ten (10) or more years of service shall receive an additional eight (8) hours of personal holiday time per year in recognition of his/her service to the Palos Verdes Library District. During employment, employees shall not be entitled to "cash out" any accrued and unused personal holiday pay, but shall be entitled to be paid for any accrued and unused personal holiday pay upon separation from employment.

8.2.1 Regular Full-Time Employees. Regular full-time employees are granted 56 hours of personal holiday time per year. However, employees who have ten (10) or more years of service with the Palos Verdes Library District shall be granted 64 hours of personal holiday time per year. Employees employed by the Palos Verdes Library District on January 1 will receive all personal holiday time on January 1 of each year. New employees hired during the year shall be granted personal holiday time on a pro-rated basis of 4.66 hours for each full month remaining in the calendar year (e.g., a new employee who begins employment on June 6 would receive 27.96 hours of personal time (4.66 X 6 months)).

Regular Full-time employee who receives Long Service Recognition	64 hours maximum accrual
Regular Full-time employee who does not receive Long Service Recognition	56 hours maximum accrual

8.2.2 Regular Part-Time Salaried Employees. Regular part-time salaried employees are granted 28 hours of personal holiday time per year. However, employees who have ten (10) or more years of service with the Palos Verdes Library District shall be granted 36 hours of personal holiday time per year. Employees employed by the Palos Verdes Library District on January 1 will receive all personal holiday time on January 1 of each year. Regular Part-time salaried employee who receives Long Service recognition	36 hours maximum accrual

Regular Part-time salaried employee who does not receive Long Service Recognition	28 hours maximum accrual

8.2.3 Regular Part-Time Hourly Employees. Effective January 1, 2017 part-time hourly employees shall be granted 4 hours of personal holiday time per year. Part-time hourly employees who receive Long Service Recognition shall receive an additional 8 hours of personal holiday time per year. Total hours are granted on January 1. New employees hired during the year shall be granted personal holiday time on a pro-rated basis of .34 hour for each full month remaining in the calendar year (e.g. a new employee who begins employment of June 6 would receive 2.04 hours of personal holiday time (.34 x 6 months)).

Regular Part-time hourly employee who receives long Service Recognition	12 hours maximum accrual
Regular Part-time hourly employee who does not receive Long Service Recognition	4 hours maximum accrual

8.2.4 The Use of Personal Holidays. The use of personal holidays is requested by employees and approved by the manager per policy 8.3.2. If the employee has made a good faith effort to schedule his/her personal holidays but the Palos Verdes Library District is unable to grant the time off, the employee may convert personal holidays into vacation time, upon approval from his/her Manager and the District Director, up to the maximum vacation accrual limits noted in Personnel Policy 8.3.

8.3 Vacation.

8.3.1 Vacation Accrual. Except as otherwise provided in this section, vacation time accrues each pay period beginning with the date of hire for salaried employees. Hourly employees do not accrue paid vacation time. Vacation time may not be used until after the employee successfully completes the first six (6) months of his/her probationary period. Exceptions may be made with the District Director's approval.

Full Years of Service (Regular Full-time)	Annual Accrual Rate	Maximum Accrual
0 through 4	80 hours 3.34 per pay period	160 hours
5 through 10	120 hours 5.00 per pay period	200 hours

0 through 4	37 hours 1.54 per pay period	74 hours
5 through 10	55.50 hours 2.31 per pay period	92.50 hours
More than 10	74 hours 3.08 per pay period	111 hours

The policy and practice of the Palos Verdes Library District is to grant employees the opportunity to use accrued vacation, so long as the scheduling of vacation does not interfere with the Palos Verdes Library District's interest in maintaining service to the community. In all circumstances, management must approve the time off before it is taken.

Employee vacation accruals will cease when the employee accrues the "maximum accrual" levels identified above until such time that the employee's accrued balance falls below the maximum amount. It is the employee's responsibility to keep track of the employee's accrual balances. The Palos Verdes Library District has the right to require employees to use vacation if the employee reaches the vacation cap applicable to the employee. Mandatory vacation days shall be scheduled with input from the employee.

In extraordinary circumstances if the employee has made a good faith effort to schedule his/her vacation but the Palos Verdes Library District is unable to grant the time off, the employee may accrue more than the maximum accrual with written approval from the District Director.

- 8.3.2 Vacation/Personal Holiday Request. All employees will be required to use “Request Time Off” forms in the timekeeping/payroll system. Temporary employees are not entitled to accrued paid leave of any kind.
- 8.3.3 Scheduling Vacation/Personal Holiday. All salaried employees will be required to Request Time Off (per policy 8.3.2) as early as possible. The department manager will consider (approve or deny) the request as soon as practical, except when the request spans an authorized Palos Verdes Library District Holiday (Policy 8.1.1), in which case policy 8.3.4 Holiday Periods will apply. Once a department schedule has been posted, no further time off requests will be accepted for the scheduled period (except in emergency circumstances).
- 8.3.4 Holiday Periods. Vacation requests filed in accordance with 8.3.2 for any time period spanning an authorized Palos Verdes Library District Holiday will be considered no sooner than 90 days before that Holiday. The priority will be maintaining adequate coverage so that service to the community is not affected. If more than, one employee from a department requests time off over the same Holiday period priority will be given to employees who did not take time off over that Holiday the previous year.
- 8.3.5 Vacation Denial. When an employee’s vacation request cannot be approved, the department manager shall schedule the employee’s vacation at the next earliest date requested by the employee and deemed appropriate by the manager based on the Palos Verdes Library District’s interest in maintaining service to the community.
- Previously approved vacation/personal holiday requests may be cancelled or rescheduled, if inadequate staffing levels in the department occur due to unforeseen circumstances.
- 8.3.6 Employees may use vacation or personal holidays for religious holidays.
- 8.3.7 Change from Full-Time to Part-Time. If an employee has been working full-time, earning vacation on a full-time basis, and subsequently drops to part-time salaried employment, the employee will retain the unused, accrued vacation hours up to the applicable maximum accrual allowed for part-time salaried employees and will be required to cash out any additional unused, accrued vacation hours earned during the full-time employment. If the employee drops to part-time hourly employment, the employee will be paid for the hours of vacation accrued and will cease earning vacation as of the date of hourly employment.
- 8.3.8 Change for Part-Time to Full-Time. If an employee has been working part-time, earning vacation on a part-time basis, and subsequently promotes to full-time employment, the employee will retain the unused, accrued vacation hours earned as a part-time employee.
- 8.3.9 Payment upon Termination. Employees terminating employment with the Palos Verdes Library District will be paid for all unused, accrued vacation.

Salaried employees (full-time and part-time) may use up to 50% of their annually accrued sick leave to care for the employee's spouse, registered domestic partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, sister, brother, mother-in-law and father-in-law. Hourly employees may use up to 24 hours of sick leave per calendar year to care for the employee's spouse, registered domestic partner, child, parent grandparent, grandchild, sister, brother, mother-in-law, and father-in-law. Sick leave may be used for medical and dental appointments.

Regular part-time salaried employees who have an accrued sick leave balance of 106 hours or more at the end of each calendar year may elect to convert up to 16 hours of sick leave to vacation, which will be added to the employee's accrued vacation balance, subject to the employee's accrued vacation limits.

8.4.4 Regular Part-Time Hourly Employees. Regular part-time hourly employees will be granted 24 hours of sick leave on their first date of employment. Part-time employees employed by the Palos Verdes Library District on January 1 will be granted 24 hours of additional paid sick time on January 1 of each year to a maximum accrual of 48 hours. Any unused sick leave from the prior calendar year may carry over provided the total sick leave balance does not exceed 48 hours.

Regular part-time hourly employees are not eligible to use any sick leave until they have worked for the Palos Verdes Library District for at least 90 calendar days.

- 8.4.5 Sick Leave Reporting. If the need for sick leave is foreseeable, an employee must give his/her immediate supervisor reasonable advance written or oral notice. If the need for sick leave is not foreseeable, the employee shall provide written or oral notice of the need for sick leave as soon as practicable. Additionally, if no advance notice is provided, and an employee is ill and schedule to work that same day, the employee must telephone his/her supervisor/manager or the designated department voicemail box by no later than 9:00 a.m. and report illness. If the employee is scheduled to work before 9:00 a.m., the employee must call at least one hour before the employee's scheduled start time. It is the employee's responsibility to make every effort to report an illness to the Librarian-in-charge on Sundays. If an employee is ill more than one day, the employee must call in daily until returning to work, and keep his/her supervisor informed as to the date the employee expects to return t work. This will not be required if an employee reports an absence of one (1) or more weeks from the workplace and provides medical verification for such absence, or otherwise is on a leave pursuant to Personnel Policy IX (Unpaid Leaves of Absence).. While the employee is responsible for informing the Palos Verdes Library District of any absences from work due to sickness as outlined herein, the employee may request that someone else contact the Palos Verdes Library District. Under certain circumstances, the supervisor/manager and/or the District Director may nevertheless find it necessary to contact the employee concerning the absence. If an employee is ill for five (5) or more regularly scheduled workdays, a medical certificate for sick leave absence will be required. Failure to report or request sick leave as required by this policy without good reason, may result in the employee being treated as absent without leave and subject to separation.
- 8.4.6 Medical Verification. The Palos Verdes Library District reserves the right to request medical verification or other documentation, in accordance with applicable law, to confirm appropriate use of sick leave after the employee has used 24 hours of sick leave within the year to care for the illness of the employee or immediate family member.

The Palos Verdes Library District does not pay mileage or other additional expenses incurred while serving as a juror.

8.7.2 Arrangement of Hours. While on jury duty, employees whose regularly scheduled hours fall outside the schedule of jury duty hours will be allowed to adjust their work hours so their time at the workplace is reduced by the number of hours they served on jury duty that day. Employees are expected to return to work when excused by the court before noon, unless alternative arrangements are made with the employee's immediate supervisor. If an employee serves five (5) consecutive calendar days on jury duty the employee may not be required to work more than one (1) day on the following weekend.

8.8 Voting Leave. If an employee does not have sufficient time outside the assigned working hours to vote at any general election, the employee may request up to two (2) hours working time without loss of pay in order to vote. Prior approval by the District Director is required and the District Director may require the employee to take voting time at the beginning or end of a shift. The employee's supervisor/manager may also ask the employee to present a voter's receipt before being paid for voting time off.

9.1.3 Reasons for Leave: Leave is only permitted for the following reasons:

9.1.3.1 The birth of a child or to care for a newborn of an employee;

9.1.3.2 The placement of a child with an employee in connection with the adoption or foster care of a child;

9.1.3.3 Leave to care for a child, parent, spouse or domestic partner who has a serious health condition; or

9.1.3.4 Leave because of a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform any one or more essential functions of his/her position.

9.1.3.5 Leave for a "qualifying exigency" arising out of the fact that an employee's spouse, son, daughter, or parent is on covered active duty or called to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation (under FMLA only, not the CFRA); or

9.1.3.6 Leave to care for a spouse, son, daughter, parent of "next of kin" who is a covered service member of the United States Armed Forces who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty while on active military duty or existed before the beginning of the member's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces (this leave can run up to 26 weeks on unpaid leave during a single 12-month period) (under the FMLA only, not the CFRA).

9.1.4 Employees Eligible for Leave: An employee is eligible for leave if the employee:

9.1.4.1 Has been employed for at least 12 months; and

9.1.4.2 Has worked for at least 1,250 hours during the 12-month period immediately preceding the commencement of the leave.

9.1.5 Amount of Leave: Eligible employees are entitled to a total of 12 work weeks (or 26 work weeks to care for a covered service member) of leave during any

12-month period. Where FMLA leave qualifies as both military caregiver leave and care for a family member with a serious health condition, the leave will be designated as military caregiver leave first.

9.1.5.1 Minimum Duration of Leave: If leave is requested for the birth, adoption or foster care placement of a child of the employee, leave must be concluded within one year of the birth or placement of the child. In addition, the basic minimum duration of such leave is two weeks. However, an employee is entitled to leave for one of these purposes (e.g., bonding with a newborn) for at least one day, but less than two weeks duration on any two occasions.

9.1.5.1.1 Minimum Duration of Leave for Military Leave: If leave is requested for a “covered service member” serious injury or illness, the basic minimum duration of FMLA leave is 26 work week entitlement and is a one-time entitlement applied on a per-service member, per injury basis, meaning that an eligible employee may take 26 work weeks of leave to care for one service member in a single 12-month period.

If leave is requested to care for a child, parent, spouse or the employee him/herself with a serious health condition, there is no minimum amount of leave that must be taken. However, the notice and medical certification provisions of this policy must be complied with.

9.1.5.2 Spouses Both Employed By Palos Verdes Library District: In any case in which a husband and wife both employed by Palos Verdes Library District are entitled to leave, the aggregate number of work weeks of leave to which both may be entitled may be limited to 12 work weeks during any 12-month period if leave is taken for the birth or placement for adoption or foster care of the employees' child (i.e., bonding leave). This limitation does not apply to any other type of leave under this policy.

9.1.5.2.1 In any case in which a husband and wife both employed by the Palos Verdes Library District are entitled to leave, the aggregate number of work weeks of leave to which both may be entitled may be limited to 26 work weeks during any 12-month period if leave is taken to care for a covered service member. Except as noted above, this limitation does not apply to any other type of leave under this policy.

9.1.5.3 Employee Benefits While on Leave: Leave under this policy is unpaid. While on family and medical care leave, employees will continue to be covered by the group health insurance (which includes dental and vision) to the same extent that coverage is provided while the employee is on the job for up to 12 weeks each leave year. If the employee is disabled by pregnancy, coverage will continue to be covered up to 4 months each leave year. In the event an employee is disabled by pregnancy and also uses leave under CFRA for baby-bonding, the Palos Verdes Library District will maintain the employee's health benefits while the employee is disabled by pregnancy (up to four (4) months or 17 1/3 weeks) and during the employee's CFRA leave (up to 12 weeks). However, employees will not continue to be covered under the Palos Verdes Library District's non-health benefit plans such as long term disability insurance or life insurance.

Employees may make the appropriate contributions for continued coverage under the preceding non-health benefit plans by payroll deductions or direct payments made to these plans. Depending on the particular plan, the Palos Verdes Library District will inform you whether the premiums should be paid to the carrier or to the Palos Verdes Library District. Your coverage on a particular plan may be dropped if you are more than 30 days late in making a premium payment. However, you will receive a notice at least 15 days before coverage is to cease, advising you that you will be dropped if your premiums payment is not paid by a certain date. Employee contribution rates are subject to any change in rates that occurs while the employee is on leave.

If an employee fails to return to work after his/her leave entitlement has been exhausted or expires, the Palos Verdes Library District shall have the right to recover its share of health plan premiums for the entire leave period, unless the employee does not return because of the continuation, recurrence, or onset of a serious health condition of the employee or his/her family member which would entitle the employee to leave, or because of circumstances beyond the employee's control. The Palos Verdes Library District shall have the right to recover premiums through deduction from the employee (e.g. unpaid wages, vacation pay, etc.).

9.1.6 Substitution of Paid Accrued Leaves: Pursuant to the terms and restrictions set forth in the Personnel Policy, Section 9.1 (Family and Medical Leave), during the first five (5) days of leave under this policy for the same qualifying reason, an employee is required to concurrently use his/her accrued sick leave time. For the remainder of the employee's leave under this policy, the employee may elect, but is not required to, concurrently use paid accrued leaves, such as sick, vacation, or personal holiday time. The Palos Verdes Library District may also require an employee to use Family and Medical Care Leave concurrently with a non-FMLA/CFRA leave which is FMLA/CFRA-qualifying.

9.1.6.1 Employee's right to use paid accrued leaves concurrently with Family Leave. Where an employee has earned or accrued paid vacation, administrative leave, compensatory time, or personal or family leave ; the Palos Verdes Library District will permit employee to use accrued leave days for family leave purposes), that paid leave may be substituted for all or part of any (otherwise) unpaid leave under this policy. As for sick leave, an employee is entitled to use sick leave concurrently with leave under personnel policy 9 to the extent allowable under personnel Policy 8.4 (Sick Leave).

9.1.6.1.1 Employees being paid pursuant to a disability plan that pays a portion of the employee's salary while on leave may use accrued paid leave to cover the unpaid portion of the disability leave benefit; and

9.1.6.1.2 Employees will only be required to use sick leave concurrently with FMLA/CFRA leave if the leave is for the employee's own serious health condition.

9.1.6.1.3 Palos Verdes Library District's right to require an employee to exhaust FMLA/CFRA Leave concurrently with other leaves. If an employee takes a leave of absence for a reason which is FMLA/CFRA qualifying, the Palos Verdes Library District may designate that leave as running concurrently with the employee's 12-week FMLA/CFRA leave entitlement.

9.1.6.1.4 Palos Verdes Library District and employee's rights; if an employee requests accrued leave, other than accrued sick leave, without mentioning either the FMLA or CFRA. If an employee requests to utilize accrued vacation leave or other accrued paid time off, other than accrued sick leave, without reference to a FMLA/CFRA-qualifying purpose, the Palos Verdes Library District may not ask the employee if the leave is for a FMLA/CFRA-qualifying purpose. However, if the Palos Verdes Library District denies the employee's request and the employee provides information that the requested time off is for a FMLA/CFRA-qualifying purpose, The Palos Verdes Library District may inquire further into the reason for the absence. IF the reason is FMLA/CFRA-qualifying, the Palos Verdes Library District may require the employee to exhaust accrued leave as described above.

9.1.7 Medical Certification. Employees who request leave for their own serious health condition or to care for a child, parent or a spouse who has a serious health condition must provide written certification from the health care provider of the individual requiring care if requested by Palos Verdes Library District.

If the leave is requested because of the employee's own serious health condition, the written certification from the health care provider must include a statement that includes all of the following: the date, if known, on which the serious health condition commenced; the probable duration of the condition; and a statement that, due to the serious health condition, the employee is unable to work at all or is unable to perform any one or more of the essential functions of his or her position. Upon expiration of the time period the health care provider originally estimated that the employee needed for his/her own serious health condition, the Palos Verdes Library District may require the employee to obtain recertification if additional leave is requested.

Employees who request leave to care for a child, parent, domestic partner or a spouse who has a serious health condition must provide written certification from the health care provider of the family member requiring care that contains all of the following: the date, if known on which the serious health condition commenced; the probable duration of the condition; an estimate of the amount of time which the health care provider believes the employee needs to care for the child, parent, domestic partner, or spouse, and a statement that the serious health condition warrants the participation of the employee to provide care during a period of treatment or supervision of the child, parent or spouse. The term “warrants the participation of the employee” includes, but is not limited to, providing psychological comfort, and arranging third party care for the covered family member, as well as directly providing, or participating in, the medical care. Upon expiration of the time period the health care provider originally estimated that the employee needed to care for a covered family member, the Palos Verdes Library District may obtain recertification if additional leave is requested.

Employees who request leave to care for a covered service member who is a child, spouse, parent or “next of kin” of the employee must provide written certification from a health care provider regarding the injured service member’s serious injury or illness.

The first time an employee requests leave because of a qualifying exigency, the Palos Verdes Library District may require the employee to provide a copy of the military member’s active duty order or other documentation issued by the military which indicates that the military member is on covered active duty or call to active duty status in a foreign country, and the dates for the military member’s active duty service. A copy of new active duty orders or similar documentation shall be provided to the Palos Verdes Library District if the need for leave because of a qualifying exigency arises out of a different active duty or call to active duty status of the same or a different military member.

- 9.1.8 Time to Provide a Certification: When an employee's leave is foreseeable and at least 30 days’ notice has been provided, if a medical certification is requested, the employee must provide it before the leave begins. When this is not possible, the employee must provide the requested certification to the Palos Verdes Library District within the time frame requested by the Palos Verdes Library District which must allow at least 15 calendar days after the employer's request, unless it is not practicable under the particular circumstances to do so despite the employee's diligent, good faith efforts.
- 9.1.9 Consequences for failure to provide an adequate or timely certification: If an employee provides an incomplete medical certification, the employee will be given a reasonable opportunity to cure any such deficiency. However, if an employee fails to provide a medical certification within the time frame established by this policy, the Palos Verdes Library District may delay the taking of FMLA/CFRA leave until the required certification is provided.
- 9.1.10 Recertification: If the Palos Verdes Library District has a good faith, objective reason to doubt the validity of a certification, the Palos Verdes Library District may require a medical opinion of a second health care provider chosen and paid for by the Palos Verdes Library District. If the second opinion is different from the first, the Palos Verdes Library District may require the opinion of a third provider jointly approved by the Palos Verdes Library District and the employee, but paid for by the Palos Verdes Library District. The opinion of the third provider will be binding. An employee may receive a copy, without cost, of the health care provider's opinions when there is a re-certification.

- 9.1.11 Intermittent Leave or Leave on a Reduced Leave Schedule: If an employee requests leave intermittently (a few days or hours at a time) or on a reduced leave schedule to care for an immediate family member with a serious health condition, the employee must provide medical certification that such leave is medically necessary. "Medically necessary" means there must be a medical need for the leave and that the leave can best be accomplished through an intermittent or reduced leave schedule. The Palos Verdes Library District may require an employee who certifies the need for a reduced schedule or intermittent leave to temporarily transfer to an alternate position of equivalent pay and benefits that better accommodates the leave schedule.
- 9.1.12 Employee Notice of Leave: Although the Palos Verdes Library District recognizes that emergencies arise which may require employees to request immediate leave, employees are required to give as much notice as possible of their need for leave. Except for qualifying exigency leave, if leave is foreseeable, at least 30 days' notice is required. In addition, if an employee knows that they will need leave in the future, but does not know the exact date(s) (e.g. for the birth of a child or to take care of a newborn), the employee shall inform his/her supervisor/manager as soon as possible that such leave will be needed. Such notice may be orally given. If the Palos Verdes Library District determines that an employee's notice is inadequate or the employee knew about the requested leave in advance of the request, the Palos Verdes Library District may delay the granting of the leave until it can, in its discretion; adequately cover the position with a substitute.
- 9.1.13 Reinstatement upon Return from Leave: Upon expiration of leave, an employee is entitled to be reinstated to the position of employment held when the leave commenced, or to an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment. Employees have no greater rights to reinstatement, benefits and other conditions of employment than if the employee had been continuously employed during the leave period.

If a definite date of reinstatement has been agreed upon at the beginning of the leave, the employee will be reinstated on the date agreed upon. If the reinstatement date differs from the original agreement of the employee and the Palos Verdes Library District; the employee will be reinstated within two (2) business days, where feasible, after the employee notifies the employer of his/her readiness to return.

Depending on the circumstances, employees may be required to report periodically on their status and intent to return to work. This will avoid any delays to reinstatement when the employee is ready to return.

- 9.1.14 Fitness for Duty Certification: As a condition of reinstatement of an employee whose leave was due to the employee's own serious health condition, which made the employee unable to perform his/her job, the employee must obtain and present a fitness-for-duty certification from the health care provider that the employee is able to resume work. Failure to provide such certification will result in denial of reinstatement.
- 9.1.15 Reinstatement of "Key Employees": The Palos Verdes Library District may deny reinstatement to a "key" employee (i.e., an employee who is among the highest paid 10 percent of all employed) if such denial is necessary to prevent substantial and grievous economic injury to the operations of the Palos Verdes Library District, and the employee is notified of the Palos Verdes Library District's intent to deny reinstatement on such basis at the time the employer determines that such injury would occur.
- 9.1.16 Required Forms: Employees must fill out the applicable forms in connection with leave under this policy as provided by the Human Resources office.
- 9.1.17 State Disability Insurance. Employees may be eligible for six (6) weeks of leave paid for State Disability Insurance (SDI). SDI will run concurrently with FMLA or CFRA leave.

Qualifying exigency leave is available to employees who have a spouse, son, daughter, or parent called to active duty as part of the Reserve components and the National Guard, or a retired member of the Regular Armed Forces or Reserve. - 9.2.3 Childcare and school activities. To arrange childcare or attend certain school activities for a child of the covered military member, who is either under the age of 18 or age 18 or older and incapable of self-care. - 9.2.4 Financial and legal arrangements. To make or update financial or legal arrangements to address the covered military member's absence while on active duty or call to active duty status, such as preparing and executing financial and healthcare powers or attorney, transferring bank account signature authority, enrolling in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System, obtaining military identification cards, or preparing or updating a will or living trust. To attend arrival ceremonies, reintegration briefings and events, and any other official ceremony or program sponsored by the military for a period of 90 days following the termination of the covered military member's active duty and to address issues that arise from the death of a covered military member while on active duty status, such as meeting and recovering the body of the covered military member and making funeral arrangements.
- 9.2.8 Additional activities. To address other events which arise out of the covered military member's active duty or call to active duty status provided that the employer and employee agree that such leave shall qualify as an exigency, and agree to both the timing and duration of such leave.

If an employee requests leave for a qualifying exigency, the employee must provide sufficient information that indicates a family member is on active duty or call to active duty status that the requested leave is for one of the qualifying exigencies listed in the regulations, and the anticipated duration of the absence.

For qualifying exigency leave, an employer may require an employee to provide a copy of the covered military member's active duty orders or other documentation issued by the military which indicates that the covered military member is on active duty (or has been notified or an impending call or order to active duty) in support of a contingency operation, and the dates of the covered military member's active duty service.

within four calendar months (or 17 1/3 weeks). The employee shall be entitled to utilize any accrued sick leave, vacation leave, personal holiday time, or compensatory time during this period of time. An employee shall not accrue additional vacation during this leave or sick leave during any unpaid portion of this leave.

Similarly, a husband or registered domestic partner has the right to take CFRA leave when needed to care for the employee's pregnant spouse/registered domestic partner due to her serious health condition. This right, however, is not available to a boyfriend or fiancé' who is the father of the unborn child (although a boyfriend or fiancé may be entitled to bonding leave).

A catastrophic illness/injury is a serious, debilitating illness/injury that incapacitates the employee or a member of the employee's immediate family (Policy 3.11) and creates a financial hardship because the employee has exhausted all eligible paid leaves and needs to take additional leave because of the illness/injury.

All other personnel actions such as compensation, benefits, transfers, layoffs, and return from layoffs, will be administered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, marital status, sexual identity, medical condition, or national origin, except when there is a bona fide occupational qualification.

The Palos Verdes Library District also prohibits any harassment based on race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, sexual identity, medical condition, national origin, or disability. Harassment is verbal or physical conduct directed at a person because of these protected characteristics and has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment or unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance; or otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Any employee of this Palos Verdes Library District, whether supervisory or non-supervisory, who practices discrimination or harassment will be subject to disciplinary action. If an employee believes that an incident has occurred that is offensive or objectionable, causes discomfort or humiliation, creates a hostile environment, or interferes with job performance or advancement opportunities, they are urged to bring the matter promptly to the attention of any supervisor or manager, or the Personnel department. No employee will be subjected to any form of discipline or retaliation for reporting incidents of unlawful discrimination or harassment.

11.2 Injury and Illness Prevention Program

Accordingly, the Palos Verdes Library District has instituted an Injury and Illness Prevention Program designed to protect the health and safety of all personnel. Accordingly, the Palos Verdes Library District has instituted an Injury and Illness Prevention Program designed to protect the health and safety of all personnel. The program is administered by the District Director and/or designee. The program will include periodic inspections to find and eliminate unsafe working conditions or practices and investigate occupational injuries and illnesses. Each employee will receive training in this program.

Each employee at all times is expected to plan and carry out work assignments with regard to his/her own personal safety and the safety of others. All employees must report immediately any accidents involving Palos Verdes Library District-owned equipment or involving personnel on Palos Verdes Library District time to their supervisor/manager so that the Palos Verdes Library District can take corrective action as soon as possible. If the supervisor/manager is not available, the employees shall report the accident to the next higher level of supervision or the Human Resources Office. Any damage to Palos Verdes Library District-owned property or any accident involving Palos Verdes Library District personnel must be reported to the Human Resources Office. Failure to report an accident may be grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination

11.3 Harassment/Discrimination/Retaliation Prevention Policy.

It is the Palos Verdes Library District's intent and the purpose of this policy to provide all employees, applicants, and contractors with an environment that is free from any form of discriminatory harassment, discrimination or retaliation as defined in the policy. This policy prohibits harassment or discrimination on the basis of any of the following protected classifications: an individual's race, religion, color, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation (including heterosexuality, homosexuality and bisexuality), national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, uniformed service member status, marital status, pregnancy, age, medical condition and physical or mental disability (whether perceived or actual). It is also the policy of the Palos Verdes Library District to provide a procedure for investigating alleged harassment, discrimination and retaliation in violation of this policy.

The protection from discrimination includes the protection from retaliation for having taken action either as a complainant, or for assisting a complainant in taking action, or for acting as a witness or advocate on behalf of an employee in a legal or other proceeding to obtain a remedy for a breach of this policy.

11.3.1 Policy. The Palos Verdes Library District has a ZERO tolerance for any conduct that violates this policy. Conduct need not rise to the level of a violation of law in order to violate this policy. Instead, a single act can violate the policy and provide grounds for discipline or other appropriate sanctions. If you are in doubt as to whether or not any particular conduct may violate this policy, do not engage in the conduct, and seek guidance from a manager or the Human Resources Analyst. Harassment or discrimination against an applicant or employee by a supervisor, management employee, elected or appointed official, co-worker, member of the public, or contractor on the basis of race, religion, sex (including gender, gender identity, gender expression, transgender, pregnancy, and breastfeeding), national origin ancestry, disability, medical condition, genetic characteristics or information, marital status, age, sexual orientation (including homosexuality, bisexuality, or heterosexuality), or any other protected classification as defined below, will not be tolerated. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including, but not limited to, hiring, placement, promotion, disciplinary action, layoff, recall, transfer, leave of absence, compensation and training. Disciplinary action or other appropriate sanction up to and including termination will be instituted for prohibited behavior as defined below. Any retaliation against a person for filing a complaint or participating in the complaint resolution process is prohibited. Individuals found to be retaliating in violation of the policy will be subject to appropriate sanction or disciplinary action up to and including termination.

11.3.2 Definitions

11.3.2.1 Protected Classifications. This policy prohibits harassment or discrimination because of an individual's protected classification(s). "Protected Classification" includes race, religion, color, sex, gender identity, gender expression, transgender, pregnancy and breastfeeding, sexual orientation (including heterosexuality, homosexuality and bisexuality), national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, uniformed service member status, marital status, pregnancy, age, medical condition, genetic characteristics or information, and physical or mental disability (whether perceived or actual).

11.3.2.2 Policy Coverage. This policy prohibits the employer, elected officials, officers, employees and contractors from harassing or discriminating against applicants, officers, officials, employees and contractors because: (1) of an individual's protected classification, (2) of the perception that an individual has a protected classification, or (3) the individual associates with a person who has or is perceived to have a protected classification.

11.3.2.3 Discrimination. This policy prohibits treating individuals differently because of the individual's protected classification as defined by this policy.

11.3.2.4 Harassment. Harassment may include, but is not limited to, the following types of behavior that is taken because of a person's protected classification. Note that harassment is not limited to conduct that employer's employees take. Under certain circumstances, harassment can also include conduct taken by those who are not employees, such as elected officials, appointed officials, persons providing services under contracts, or even members of the public.

11.3.2.4.1 Verbal harassment, such as epithets (nicknames and slang terms), derogatory slurs, or suggestive comments, propositioning on the basis of a protected classification. This might include inappropriate comments on appearance, including dress or physical features, or dress consistent with gender identification, or race-oriented stories and jokes.

11.3.2.4.2 Visual acts, such as derogatory posters, notices, bulletins, cartoons, drawings, sexually suggestive objects, or emails on the basis of a protected classification.

11.3.2.4.3 Physical acts, such as assault, offensive touching, impeding or blocking movement. This includes pinching, grabbing, patting, propositioning, leering, or making explicit or implied job threats or promises in return for submission to physical acts.

11.3.2.4.4 Unwanted Sexual Advances, such as requests for sexual favors and other acts of a sexual nature, where submission is made a term or condition of employment, where submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as the basis for employment decisions, or where the conduct is intended to or actually does unreasonable interfere with an individual's work performance or create an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

11.3.3 Romantic and Sexual Relationships between Managers and Subordinates. Romantic or sexual relationships between managers and subordinate employees are discouraged. There is an inherent imbalance of power and potential for exploitation in such relationships. The relationship may create an appearance of impropriety and lead to charges of favoritism by other employees. A welcome sexual relationship may change, with the result that sexual conduct that was once welcome becomes unwelcome and harassing.

11.3.4 Guidelines for Identifying Harassment: To help clarify what constitutes harassment in violation of the policy, use the following guidelines.

11.3.4.1 Harassment includes any conduct which would be "unwelcome" to an individual of the recipient's same protected classification and which is taken because of the recipient's protected classification.

11.3.4.2 It is no defense that the recipient appears to have voluntarily "consented" to the conduct at issue. A recipient may not protest for many legitimate reasons, including the need to avoid being insubordinate or to avoid being ostracized.

11.3.4.3 Simply because no one has complained about a joke, gesture, picture, physical contact, or comment does not mean that the conduct is welcome. Harassment can evolve over time. Small, isolated incidents might be tolerated up to a point. The fact that no one is complaining now does not preclude anyone from complaining if the conduct is repeated in the future.

11.3.4.4 Even visual, verbal, or physical conduct between two employees who appear to welcome the conduct can constitute harassment of a third applicant, officer, official, employee, or contractor who observes the conduct or learns about the conduct later. Conduct can constitute harassment even if it is not explicitly or specifically directed at an individual.

11.3.4.5 Conduct can constitute harassment in violation of the policy even if the individual engaging in the conduct has no intention to harass. Even well intended conduct can violate this policy if the conduct is directed at, or implicates a protected classification, and if an individual of the recipient's protected classification would find it offensive (e.g., fights, over attention, endearing nicknames).

11.3.5 Retaliation. Any adverse conduct taken because an applicant, employee, or Contractor has reported harassment or discrimination, or has participated in the complaint and investigation process described herein, is prohibited. "Adverse conduct" includes, but is not limited to: taking sides because an individual has reported harassment or discrimination, spreading rumors about a complaint, shunning and avoiding an individual who reports harassment or discrimination, or real or implied threats of intimidation to prevent an individual from reporting harassment or discrimination. The following individuals are protected from retaliation: those who made good faith reports of harassment or discrimination, and those who associate with an individual who is involved in reporting harassment or discrimination or who participates in the complaint or investigation process.

11.3.5.1 Complaint Procedure. An employee, job applicant, or contractor who believes they have been harassed may make a complaint verbally or in writing with any of the following. There is no need to follow the chain of command: immediate supervisors, any supervisor or manager within or outside of the department, department manager, or human resources analyst.

11.3.5.2 Any Supervisor or Department Manager who receives a harassment complaint should notify the Human Resources Analyst immediately.

11.3.5.3 Upon receiving notification of a harassment complaint, the Human Resources Analyst shall:

11.3.5.3.1 Authorize and supervise the investigation of the complaint and/or investigate the complaint. The investigation will include interviews with: 1) the complainant; 2) the accused harasser; and 3) other persons who have relevant knowledge concerning the allegations in the complaint.

11.3.5.3.2 Review the factual information gathered through the investigation to determine whether the alleged conduct constitute harassment, discrimination, or retaliation giving consideration to all factual information, the totality of the circumstances, including the nature of the conduct, and the context in which the alleged incidents occurred.

11.3.5.3.3 Report a summary of the determination as to whether harassment occurred to appropriate persons, including the complainant, the alleged harasser, the Supervisor, and the Department Manager. If discipline is imposed, the level of discipline will not be communicated to the complainant.

11.3.5.3.4 If conduct in violation of this policy occurred, take or recommend to the appointing authority, prompt and effective remedial action. The remedial action will be commensurate with the severity of the offense.

11.3.5.3.5 Take reasonable steps to protect the complainant from further harassment, discrimination or retaliation.

11.3.5.3.6 Take reasonable steps to protect the complainant from retaliation as a result of communicating the complaint.

11.3.5.4 The employer takes a proactive approach to potential policy violations and will conduct an investigation if the Officer, Supervisor, or Manager becomes aware that harassment, discrimination, or retaliation may be occurring, regardless of whether the recipient or third party reports a potential violation.

11.3.5.5 Option to report to outside administrative agencies. An individual has the option to report harassment, discrimination, or retaliation to the U. W. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) or the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DEFH) These administrative agencies offer legal remedies and a complaint process. The nearest offices are listed in the government section of the telephone book or employees can check the posters that are located on employer bulletin boards for office location and telephone numbers.

11.3.6 Confidentiality. Every possible effort will be made to assure the confidentiality of the complaints made under this policy. Complete confidentiality cannot occur, however, due to the need to fully investigate and the duty to take effective remedial action. As a result, confidentiality will be maintained to the highest extent possible. An individual who is interviewed during the course of an investigation is prohibited from discussing the substance of the interview, except as otherwise directed by a Supervisor or the Human Resources Analyst. Any individual who discusses the content of an investigatory interview will be subject to discipline or other appropriate action. The employer will not disclose a completed investigation report except as it deems necessary to support a disciplinary action, to take remedial action, to defend itself in adversarial proceedings, or to comply with the lay or court order.

11.3.7 Responsibilities: Managers and Supervisors are responsible for:

11.3.7.1 Informing employees of this policy.

11.3.7.2 Modeling appropriate behavior.

11.3.7.3 Taking all steps necessary to prevent harassment, discrimination, or retaliation from occurring.

11.3.7.4 Receiving complaints in a fair and serious manner, and documenting steps taken to resolve complaints.

11.3.7.5 Monitoring the work environment and taking immediate appropriate action to stop potential violations, such as removing inappropriate pictures or correcting inappropriate language.

11.3.7.6 Following up with those who have complained to ensure that the behavior has stopped and that there are no reprisals.

11.3.7.7. Informing those who complain of harassment or discrimination of his or her option to contact the EEOC or DFEH regarding alleged policy violations.

11.3.7.8 Assisting, advising or consulting with employees and the Human Resources Analyst regarding this policy and complaint procedure.

11.3.7.9 Assisting in the investigation of complaints involving employee(s) in their departments and, if the complaint is substantiated, recommending appropriate corrective or disciplinary action in accordance with employer personnel rules, up to and including termination.

11.3.7.10 Implementing appropriate disciplinary and remedial actions.

11.3.7.11 Reporting potential violations of this policy of which he or she becomes aware, regardless of whether a complaint has been submitted, to the Human Resources Office or the Department Manager.

11.3.7.12 participating in periodic training and scheduling employees for training.

11.3.8 Employee or Contractor Responsibilities:

11.3.8.1 Treating all employees and contractors with respect and consideration.

11.3.8.2 Modeling appropriate behavior.

11.3.8.3 Participating in periodic training.

11.3.8.4 Fully cooperating with the employer's investigations by reporting fully and truthfully to all questions posed during the investigation.

11.3.8.5 Maintaining the confidentiality of any investigation that the employer conducts by not disclosing the substance of any investigatory interview, except as directed by the Department Manager or the Human Resources Analyst.

11.3.8.6 Reporting any act he or she believes in good faith constitutes harassment, discrimination, or retaliation as defined in this policy, to his/her immediate Supervisor or Department Manager or Human Resources Analyst.

All employees shall receive a copy of this policy when they are hired. The policy may be updated from time to time and redistributed.

11.4 Affordable Care Act (ACA)

The ACA anti-retaliation provisions prohibit an employer from retaliating against an employee who:

11.4.1 Receives a health insurance tax credit or subsidy through Covered California (aka the "Marketplace" or "Exchange").

11.4.2 Reports potential violations of protections afforded under Title I of the Act, which provides guaranteed availability protections among other things.

11.4.3 Testifies in a proceeding concerning such violation.

11.4.4 Assists or participates in a proceeding concerning a violation.

11.4.5 Objects to, or refuses to participate in, any activity, policy, practice, or assigned task that the employee reasonably believes to be in violation of any provision of Title I of the Act.

An employee is only protected for the above actions relating to Title I of ACA. ACA's Title I requirements involve the Employer Shared Responsibility provisions (by which an employee who obtains coverage in an exchange can trigger a penalty payable by the employer). Title I also include (but is not limited to) additional consumer protection reforms such as: elimination of lifetime and annual limits on benefits by 2014; prohibition of rescissions of health insurance policies; elimination of pre-existing condition exclusions; coverage of preventive services and immunizations; extension of dependent coverage up to age 26; development of uniform coverage documents; and implementation of appeals processes for consumers.

An employment action is considered retaliatory if it discriminates against any employee with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, or other privileges of employment. "Retaliation" can include termination, demotion, denial of overtime, denial of promotion or other benefits, failure to hire or rehire, intimidation, reassignment, discipline, blacklisting, and the reduction of pay or hours.

The Department of Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) will enforce ACA's anti-retaliation provisions. An employee who believes he or she has been retaliated against must complain within 180 days by an in-person visit or telephone call to a local OSHA office, or by sending a written complaint. Upon receipt of the complaint, the Assistant Secretary for OSHA will notify the employer of its rights. The employer will have 20 days after receiving notice of the complaint to file a written statement, affidavits or documents in support of its position. The employer may also request a meeting with the Assistant Secretary to present its position. OSHA will determine if the complaint is sufficient, investigate the complaint and issue a decision.

11.5 Religious Discrimination.

It is against the Palos Verdes Library District policy to discriminate against any person based on religious beliefs or practices. Palos Verdes Library District will not ask employees about their religious conviction or practices. When an offer of employment is extended, applicants will be informed of the regular schedule and potential for overtime work in the jobs, and potential conflicts will be explored.

It is our policy to accommodate the religious beliefs of our employees whenever possible. The accommodation, however, can't exert undue hardship on other employees or create a financial burden for the Palos Verdes Library District. If the accommodation is not possible, the employee will be expected to assume his/her usual duties as previously scheduled.

Both the Palos Verdes Library District and employees have obligations with regards to reasonable accommodation for religious beliefs. Employees are required to bring any conflict between a work requirement and the employee's religious beliefs or practice to the Palos Verdes Library District's attention.

No Palos Verdes Library District employees, especially in a supervisory capacity, are allowed to impose their religious beliefs on others. Religious harassment is strictly prohibited. All violations may be subject to discipline, up to and including discharge.

In order to provide reasonable accommodation for religious needs, employees may request to change shifts with other employees by mutual agreement. Employees will be permitted to use vacation or personal holiday as "personal" days for religious observance, to observe a period of mourning prescribed by religious or ethical beliefs, or to prepare for religious observances. Employees are requested to give their supervisors at least two (2) weeks' notice of observance of religious holidays.

11.6 Disability Discrimination.

It is the policy of the Palos Verdes Library District to abide by both the letter and spirit of the Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA) and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Both acts prohibit discrimination in all employment practices, including job application procedures, hiring, firing, advancement, compensation, training, and other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment. It applies to recruitment, advertising, tenure, layoff, leave, fringe benefits, and all other employment-related activities.

The Palos Verdes Library District prohibits all discrimination against “qualified individuals with disabilities.” This includes applicants for employment and current employees. An individual is considered to have a “disability” if they have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such impairment, or is regarded as having such impairment. The Palos Verdes Library District also forbids discrimination against persons because they have a known association or relationship with an individual with a disability.

The Palos Verdes Library District considers a qualified individual with a disability as a person who meets legitimate skill, experience, education, or other requirements of an employment position that they hold or seek.

The Palos Verdes Library District requires the ability to perform “essential” functions to assure that an individual with a disability will not be considered unqualified simply because of inability to perform marginal or incidental job functions. If the individual is qualified to perform essential job functions, except for limits caused by a disability, the Palos Verdes Library District will consider whether the individual could perform these functions with a reasonable accommodation. The Palos Verdes Library District will not consider mitigating measures when determining whether or not an individual is disabled.

The Palos Verdes Library District will not ask or require a job applicant to take a medical examination before making a job offer. Except under lawful circumstances, the Palos Verdes Library District will not make any pre-employment inquiry about a disability or the nature or severity of a disability. The Palos Verdes Library District will ask questions about the ability to perform specific job functions and may, with certain limitations, ask an individual with a disability to describe or demonstrate how they would perform these functions.

Employment will be conditional on the satisfactory completion of a post-offer medical examination or medical inquiry, when this is required of all entering employees in the same job category. The Palos Verdes Library District reserves the right to use a post-offer medical examination to disqualify an individual if it demonstrates that the individual would post a “direct threat” in the workplace (i.e., a significant risk of substantial harm to the health or safety of others) that cannot be eliminated or reduced below the “direct threat” level through reasonable accommodation.

The Palos Verdes Library District retains the right to conduct employee medical examinations where there is evidence of a job performance or safety problems, to determine current “fitness” to perform a particular job, and on a voluntary basis as part of employee health programs.

Information from all medical examinations and inquiries will be kept apart from general personnel files as a separate, confidential medical record, available only under limited conditions.

Tests for illegal use of drugs are not medical examinations under the ADA and are not subject to restrictions of such examinations. The Palos Verdes Library District reserves the right to conduct them according to Palos Verdes Library District policy and current federal, state, and local laws.

If an employee feels that they have been subjected to discrimination based on a disability by the Palos Verdes Library District, a vendor, a customer, etc., the employee may file a complaint with the Human Resources Office or the District Director.

The Palos Verdes Library District's established attendance and leave policies will be uniformly applied to all employees, regardless of disability. The Palos Verdes Library District may also make adjustments in leave policies as a reasonable accommodation, and all leave policies will be integrated with all pertinent federal and state leave laws.

This Palos Verdes Library District provides all of its employees, including employees with disabilities, with the opportunity to participate in training to improve job performance and for career advancement. The Palos Verdes Library District will not deny training opportunities because they may require reasonable accommodations to the training process or facility for employees with disabilities, unless accommodation would create an undue hardship.

11.7 Accommodation.

The Palos Verdes Library District will provide reasonable accommodation to enable a qualified applicant to perform the essential functions of the job that they are seeking, and to enable a qualified employee with a disability to perform the essential functions of a job currently held.

Modifications or adjustments may be required in the work environment, in the manner or circumstances in which the job is customarily performed, or in employment policies. The goal is to allow an employee with a disability to enjoy the benefits and privileges of employment, equal to those enjoyed by similarly-situated employees without disabilities.

As examples of reasonable accommodation, the Palos Verdes Library District will consider: making existing facilities used by employees readily accessible to and usable by an individual with a disability; restructuring a job; modifying work schedules; acquiring or modifying equipment; providing qualified readers or interpreters; and appropriately modifying examinations, training, or other programs.

Reasonable accommodation may also include reassigning a current employee to a vacant position for which the individual is qualified, if the person is unable to do the original job because of a disability even with an accommodation. However, the Palos Verdes Library District is under no obligation to find a position for an applicant who is not qualified for the position sought. The Palos Verdes Library District is not required to lower quality or quantity standards as an accommodation, nor provide personal use items, such as glasses or hearing aids.

The Palos Verdes Library District will not be able to make an accommodation that would impose an undue hardship on the operation of the business. The Americans with Disabilities Act defines an undue hardship as an action that requires significant difficulty or expense. Each accommodation request will be handled on a case-by-case basis, and every effort will be made to comply with the Act.

Employees who decide to request reasonable accommodation must let the Palos Verdes Library District know that they need an adjustment or change at work for a reason related to a medical condition. To request accommodation, an individual need not mention the law or use the phrase “reasonable accommodation.”

The Palos Verdes Library District may ask an employee for documentation when the employee requests reasonable accommodation for the job. When the need for accommodation is not obvious, the Palos Verdes Library District may ask any employee for reasonable documentation about his/her disability and functional limitations for purposes of confirming the existence of a disability and the need for accommodation. The Palos Verdes Library District is entitled to know that the employee has a covered disability for which they need a reasonable accommodation.

If a particular accommodation would be an undue hardship, the Palos Verdes Library District will try to identify another accommodation that will not pose such a hardship. Also, if the cost of an accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the Palos Verdes Library District, the individual with a disability will be given the option of either paying the portion of the cost that would constitute an undue hardship or providing the accommodation. The Palos Verdes Library District will enter into an interactive process with the individual with a disability to clarify what the individual needs and identify an appropriate reasonable accommodation, if any.

In many instances, both the disability and the type of accommodation required will be obvious, and thus there may be little or no need to engage in any discussion. In other situations, the Palos Verdes Library District may need to ask questions concerning the individual’s functional limitations and/or work restrictions in order to identify a reasonable accommodation. While the individual with a disability does not have to be able to specify the precise accommodation, they do need to describe the problems posed by the workplace barrier. Additionally, suggestions from the individual with a disability may assist the Palos Verdes Library District in determining the type of reasonable accommodation to provide.

The Palos Verdes Library District retains the right to discipline an individual with a disability for violating a workplace conduct standard, even if the misconduct results from a disability, provided the conduct standard is job-related for the position in question and is consistent with business necessity. The Palos Verdes Library District may only discipline an employee with a disability for engaging in such misconduct if it would impose the same discipline on an employee without a disability.

The Palos Verdes Library District retains the right to lawfully exclude an individual from employment for safety reasons if employment of the individual would pose a “direct threat”. “Direct threat” means “a significant risk of substantial harm to the health or safety of the individual or others that cannot be eliminated or reduced by reasonable accommodation”. The determination that an individual poses a “direct threat” will be based on an individualized assessment of the individual’s current ability to safely perform the functions of the job, considering a reasonable medical judgment relying on the most current medical knowledge and/or the best available objective evidence.

11.8 Violence in the Workplace.

11.8.1 Purpose:

To maintain a workplace that is free of violence or the threat of violence.

11.8.2 Policy:

This Policy applies to all Palos Verdes Library District employees, probationary, permanent, and as needed, as well as volunteers.

The Palos Verdes Library District does not tolerate any act or behavior which can be perceived as threatening, hostile, and/or violent. Except for public safety employees acting within the course and scope of their employment duties, or employees acting in exigent circumstances to protect coworkers, appointed and elected officials, volunteers or members of the public from an immediate and credible threat of violence or harm, no employee shall make any threat, either physical or verbal, against a coworker, supervisor, appointed and elected official, volunteer or member of the public. Any permitted act or use of force must be reasonable and within the scope of any established policies, procedures or orders.

Violation of this policy will lead to discipline up to, and including, termination of employment. Acts which constitute a violation of the policy may also lead to criminal prosecution.

11.8.3 Definition

Workplace violence includes conduct against persons or property on Palos Verdes Library District premises or engaged in Palos Verdes Library District-related business that is sufficiently severe, offensive, or intimidating so as to alter employment conditions or create a hostile, abusive, or intimidating work environment for any Palos Verdes Library District employee or anyone doing business with the Palos Verdes Library District. Violence occurring off Palos Verdes Library District property and not during Palos Verdes Library District business is also prohibited if it involves a Palos Verdes Library District employee and if the threats or acts of violence adversely impact the Palos Verdes Library District's interests.

 - 15.2.1.8 Notice that failure to respond at the time specified shall constitute a waiver of the right to respond prior to the final discipline being imposed.

15.2.1.9 The Notice shall also contain a "statement of delivery or mailing" indicating the date on which the Notice was personally delivered or deposited in the United States Mail to the employee. Such date of delivery or mailing shall be the "date of issuance" of the Notice. As long as the Notice contains a "statement of delivery or mailing," it is conclusively presumed that the employee received the Notice.

15.2.1.10 Response. The employee has the right to respond to the charges against him/her either orally or in writing to the District Director or the designee within ten (10) workdays of the date of issuance of the Notice. Workdays are defined as Monday through Friday except for recognized Palos Verdes Library District holidays. The employee has a right to representation at this level. The employee shall notify the District Director or the designee beforehand who the representative shall be in order to permit the District Director or the designee to make the necessary staffing arrangements. In cases of suspension, demotion or discharge the employee's response will be considered before action is taken.

15.2.1.11 Final Notice. After the response or the expiration of the employee's time to respond to the notice of intent, the appropriate authority shall: (1) dismiss the notice of intent and take no disciplinary action against the employee or (2) modify the intended disciplinary action or (3) prepare and serve upon the employee a final notice of disciplinary action. The final notice of disciplinary action shall include the following:

15.2.1.11.1 The disciplinary action taken.

15.2.1.11.5 The employee's right to appeal and deadline for filing.

15.2.1.12 Arbitration. Within ten (10) days after being issued the final notice of the discipline, the employee or the employee's representative may file an appeal to the District Director for advisory arbitration.

The employee and the Palos Verdes Library District shall attempt to agree upon an advisory arbitrator. If no agreement can be reached, they shall request the State Mediation and Conciliation Service to supply a panel of five (5) names of persons experienced in hearing grievances in government agencies. Each party shall alternately strike a name until only one name remains. The remaining panel member shall be the advisory arbitrator. The order of the striking shall be determined by lot.

The arbitrator shall, as soon as possible, hear evidence and render a recommendation on the issue or issues submitted to him/her.

After a hearing and after both parties have had an opportunity to make written arguments, the arbitrator shall submit in writing to all parties his/her findings and recommendations.

The cost of the arbitration will be split equally by the employee and the Palos Verdes Library District.

In the event that either party is not satisfied with the recommendation or recommendations of the arbitrator, they may appeal the decision in writing within ten (10) workdays after service of the arbitrator's recommendation to the Board of Library Trustees.

APPENDIX C
AFFORDABLE CARE ACT
SAFE HARBOR

Effective Date: June 18, 2015

PURPOSE:

The Palos Verdes Library District is committed to ensuring compliance with the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act enacted on March 23, 2010 and the Internal Revenue Code Section 4980H Shared Responsibility for Employers Regarding Health Care Coverage. The Palos Verdes Library District will adopt the Look Back Measurement Method Safe Harbor provision of the Affordable Care Act in order to determine the full-time status of employees for purposes of the Assessable Payment, where Section 4980H defines “full-time” status as “an employee who is employed on average at least 30 hours of service per week”.

POLICY:

The Palos Verdes Library District establishes the Look-Back Measurement Method Safe Harbor with regard to all ongoing employees as follows:

Standard measurement period:	June 1 through May 31
Administrative period:	June 1 through June 30
Stability period:	July 1 through June 30

The Palos Verdes Library District establishes the following periods for new, part-time employees:

Initial measurement period:	Twelve months (beginning on the first of the month following the first date of employment)
Administrative period:	One month following the initial measurement period
Stability period:	Twelve months following the administrative period

Upon hire of a new employee the Palos Verdes Library District will determine whether the employee is expected to be a full-time employee. If the employee is expected to be a full-time employee, and not a seasonal employee, the Palos Verdes Library District will offer health coverage within 90 days. If the Palos Verdes Library District is unable to determine that the new employee is expected to be full-time, the employee will be considered a variable hour employee.

All new, part-time hours worked will be measured over two periods; during the twelve month period beginning on the first day of the month following the date of employment and then again during the standard measurement period. The initial measurement period and the standard measurement period will be applied to variable hour employees regardless of any break in service they may experience during the periods.

Allowable hours for all new, variable hour employees will be less than 1,560 hours in a twelve month calendar year. If a break in service occurs, the Palos Verdes Library District will calculate the average hours worked by imputing hours of service for the special unpaid leave/break period at a rate equal to average weekly hours of service.

If a part-time employee works more than the allowable number of hours, the Palos Verdes Library

District will offer medical coverage to the employee and the employee's qualified dependent children according to the current Palos Verdes Library District health benefits Appendix B in the Represented and the Non-Represented Management and Confidential Personnel Manuals.

If an ongoing employee's employment status changes before the end of a stability period, the change in status will not affect the employee's status for the remaining stability period.

If a new employee's status changes from part-time to a full-time during the standard measurement period, but not during the initial measurement period, the employee will be treated as full-time for the stability period associated with the standard measurement period.

PROCEDURE AND GUIDELINE:

Human Resources are responsible for providing supervisors with automated reports summarizing part-time hours worked. Human Resources are also responsible for providing Employer Notifications to inform employees as required by the Department of Labor and in compliance with IRS Reporting requirements.

Supervisors are responsible for ensuring part-time employees do not exceed the allowable number of hours worked.

The Palos Verdes Library District may amend this policy including, but not limited to, the measurement periods, administrative period and the stability period.
